

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT for the Western District of Texas

Austin Division

United States of America

v.

Nicholas Williams (5)

Defendant

Case No. 1:24-cr-62-DAE-5

ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

Part I - Eligibility for Detention

On Motion of the Government attorney pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1), the Court held a detention hearing and found that detention is warranted. This order sets forth the Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law, as required by 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i), in addition to any other findings made at the hearing.

Part II - Analysis and Statement of the Reasons for Detention

After considering the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g), the pretrial services report, and the evidence and arguments of counsel presented at the detention hearing, the Court concludes that the defendant must be detained pending trial because the Government has proven:

- ☒ By clear and convincing evidence that no condition or combination of conditions of release will reasonably assure the safety of the community.
- ☐ By a preponderance of evidence that no condition or combination of conditions of release will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance as required.

In addition to any findings made on the record at the hearing, the reasons for detention include the following:

- ☒ Weight of evidence against the defendant is strong
- ☐ Subject to lengthy period of incarceration if convicted
- ☐ Prior criminal history
- ☒ Participation in criminal activity while on probation, parole, or supervision
- ☒ History of violence or use of weapons
- ☐ History of alcohol or substance abuse
- ☒ Lack of stable employment
- ☒ Lack of stable residence
- ☐ Lack of financially responsible sureties
- ☐ Lack of significant community or family ties to this district
- ☐ Significant family or other ties outside the United States
- ☐ Lack of legal status in the United States
- ☐ Subject to removal or deportation after serving any period of incarceration
- ☐ Prior failure to appear in court as ordered
- ☐ Prior attempts to evade law enforcement

- ☐ Use of alias(es) or false documents
☒ Background information unknown or unverified
☐ Prior violations of probation, parole, or supervised release

Other Reasons or Further Explanation:

My decision is based on the identified factors and the findings made on the record at the detention hearing. Mr. Williams has been indicted on charges of robbing a U.S. Postal Carrier of an Arrow Key and conspiring to attempt to rob other U.S. Postal Carriers of Arrow Keys. The weight of the evidence against Mr. Williams is strong, and the nature and circumstances of the alleged offenses pose a serious danger to others and the community. The Government presented evidence at the hearing that when Mr. Williams' apartment was searched, law enforcement found eleven assault rifles, two to three handguns, and stolen mail, including a check for $16,000. In addition, Mr. Williams allegedly committed the offenses (1) while he was on release on state felony and misdemeanor charges, and (2) two months after two of his codefendants in this case were arrested for allegedly stealing other Arrow Keys. This evidence strongly supports a finding that Mr. Williams will not obey any conditions of release intended to reasonably assure the safety of the community. Considering all information available, the Court finds that the relevant factors under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) weigh in favor of detention. The Court also finds that the government has established by clear and convincing evidence that no condition or combination of conditions of release would reasonably assure the safety of the community if Mr. Williams were released. For these reasons, the Government's Motion for Detention of Defendant (Dkt. 3) is GRANTED.

Part IV - Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the Attorney General or to the Attorney General's designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
